NOCENA.

Immigrants Coming in the Cattle and Cotton Trade Good.

Correspondence of the Gazette.

NOCENA, Tex., Sept. 28.—Nocena is a small town in Montague county. It is rapidly becoming the metropolis of North Texas. All lines of trade are represented by men of capital and business capacity.

Cotton is coming in at a lively rate and is selling at 8 to 9 cents per pound. Two yards are established. One belongs to the Farmers' Alliance, the other to private parties. Our grain is crowded and is running on full time.

Immigration is pouring in at a rapid rate. Many ranchmen are building dwelling houses, and making our town headquarters, in order to avail themselves of the advantages of the school. It opened September 3, with a fine enrollment of pupils. Professor Williams has proven himself eminently successful in teaching the young lads to shoot.

The cattle trade holds up well. Shipments are large and the stock is in good condition. We have been unable to obtain the number shipped, but it is immense.

The grain market is lively. One or two foreign buyers are here, which makes the market laugh.

Real estate is changing hands rapidly at very reasonable figures. Messrs. Jordan & Broadbent are selling out their large pasture of choice farming lands in tracts to suit purchasers at $4 per acre, on one, two and three years' time. These lands lie immediately north of town, and are exceedingly fertile.

There are quite a number of enterprises on foot now that it would not be proper to speak of till further developments.

The weather is dry, with cool nights and hot days.

A Mrs. Thornton died last week of inflammation of the kidneys. She had recently moved here from Burlington. She left a husband and one child, beside a host of friends to mourn her untimely death.

Mr. Ruben Chenoweth and Miss Lizzie Poole were married at Montague town last Saturday at the house of Colonel Barfoot by Elder M. F. Smith, all of this town. Madam Honor says there were no other witnesses in the near future.

Spokane, large stockmen from Southern Texas, have located here. L. S. Williams of Burlington, another stockman, has also located here.

Mr. Penle, ex-postmaster and farmer of Eagle Point, has bought property here.

Married at Quannah.

Correspondence of the Gazette.

QUANAH, Tex., Sept. 29.—On the evening of the 27th Miss Lizzie McCann and Mr. Peck Spears were married at the residence of the bride in Quannah. Miss Lizzie McCann and her sister were among the best settlers of Quannah. Mr. Spears is from Gainesville and is well known all over the west. Their many friends wish them success and happiness.

ANOTHER MUTILATED WOMAN.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—Another mysterious murder has occurred in White Chapel. The body of a woman of the town, mutilated as in the previous cases, was found in Mitre Square to night.

It is also reported that another woman has been murdered in the same vicinity.

THE LATEST VICTIM.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—The two women found murdered near the scene of the former butchery, in White Chapel, last night, have been recognized as disolute characters who have long frequented that vicinity. One of them was found in Berner street with her throat cut from ear to ear; the other was discovered lying in Mitre square. She, like the first mentioned victim, had her throat cut, but in addition she had been disemboweled and her nose cut off. The murderer had evidently been disturbed in his work in Berner street, and had no time to mutilate the body of his victim. The discovery of the bodies completely paralyzed the police, and General Sir Charles Warren, chief commissioner, was at once called out of bed. He repaired immediately to the scene of the murders and gave orders to have the police force in that district strongly reinforced.

AN UNSOLVED MYSTERY.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—The denizens of White Chapel are in a state of terror to night owing to the horrible butcheries, the fourth of which, it was hoped and quite generally believed would be the last of the ghastly series. The police are positively helpless and their total admission of failure to find any clue whatsoever to the perpetrator of the terrible crimes only serves to add to the consternation of the unfortunate creatures whose calling has manifestly made them the objects of the inhuman butcher's fury. The number of theories advanced as accounting for the murders and seeking to establish the identity of the murderer is positively bewildering, but none of them is accepted by the police as the correct one, although the Scotland Yard detectives have nothing more plausible to offer for themselves. The absolutely impotent condition of the police in the matter has led them, however,

TO CATCH AT STREWS.

In the way of evidence which in ordinary cases would be spurned by self-importance for dynamite and divers for parcels of sawdust. The most significant of these is a letter which was received at the office of the Criminal News Company is one of the postal deliveries on Thursday afternoon. The letter, which is written in a scrawling hand, is familiarly addressed to "Dear Boss," and is signed "Jack the Ripper."

After boasting that he committed all of the White Chapel murders, the writer continues: "I love my work and want to start at it again. The next job I do I shall cut off the lady's ear and send it to the police. Keep this letter back till I do a bit more work and then give it out to the police straight."

The remarkable feature of the Mitre Square murder is the fact that one of the dead women's ears was nearly severed, and this circumstance is held to indicate that the real murderer wrote the letter. Most of the newspapers issued special editions to-day, giving copious details of the tragedies and volunteering much advice to the police, which they would do well to follow. Great crowds visited the scene of the murder to-day and gazed at the blood-stained pavement with a degree of fascination difficult for the police to overcome in their efforts to keep the highways clear. The lodging houses, aleys, etc., of the White Chapel district are being scourged by the detectives to night.

THE FIRST MURDER RECORDED.

The first murder occurred in a narrow court off Berner street at an early hour this morning beneath the window of the Foreigner's Social club. A concert was in progress and many members of the club were present, but no sound was heard from the victim. The same process had been followed as in other cases. The woman had been seized by the throat and her cries choked, and the murderer with one sweeping cut had severed her throat from ear to ear. A claimant on entering the court stumbled over the body, which was lying only two yards from the street. A stream of warm blood was flowing from the body into the gutter. The murderer had evidently been disturbed before he had time to mutilate his victim.

The second murder was committed three quarters of an hour later in Mitre square, five minutes walk from the scene of the first crime. Policemen patrol the square every ten minutes. The body of the unfortunate woman had been disemboweled, the throat cut and the nose severed. The heart and lungs had been thrown aside and the entrails were twisted into the gaping wound.

The incisions show a rough dexterity. The work of dissection was evidently done with the utmost haste. Pending the report of the doctors it is not known whether or not a portion of the viscera was taken away. The doctors after a hasty examination of the body said they thought it must have taken about five minutes to complete the work of the murderer, who then had plenty of time to escape the police. Mitre Square, the scene of the second murder, is a thoroughfare. Many people pass through the square early on Sunday morning on their way to prepare for market in the notorious Petticoat lane. The publicity of the place adds to the daringness of the crime. Dr. Blackwell, who was called to view the remains of the Berner street victim, gave it as his opinion that the same man, evidently a maniac, had committed both murders. The Berner street victim had evidently been dragged back by a handkerchief worn around the throat. An inquest will be held at 11 o'clock Monday morning. Four doctors will be on the jury. The inquest on the Mitre square victim will probably be held on Tuesday.

The Berner street victim was Elizabeth Stride, a native of Stockholm, who resided in a common lodging house. The name of the other victim is not known. In consequence of the refusal of Home Secretary Matthews to offer a reward for the arrest of the White Chapel murderer, the people of the East End on Saturday petitioned the Queen herself to authorize the offering of a reward.

The Daily Telegraph commenting on the White Chapel murders says: "If the Home Secretary fails to wake up and do his duty Lord Salisbury will have to dismiss a minister who has not good sense enough to resign."

CELEBRATED HIGH MASS.

ROME, Sept. 30.—The Pope celebrated high mass for the dead at St. Peter's to-day to solemnize the close of his jubilee. The congregation numbered 20,000 persons. Attendance was by ticket. His holiness was given an enthusiastic reception and was greeted with prolonged cries of "Viva." He appeared to be deeply moved.

First open air meeting of unemployed workmen under the sanction of Premier Crispien was held in the Piazza Dante to-day. The speakers demanded state employment.

Germany.

THE EMPEROR TO QUEEN NATALIE.

BERLIN, Sept. 30.—The National Gazette states that the recently published extracts from Frederick's diary have been compared with the text of the original and have been found to agree with the latter word for word.

The Post announces that a fund for the Emin Bey relief expedition has been secured.

The North German Gazette in an article denying that Queen Natalie was expelled from Wiesbaden contrary to the promise of the Emperor to protect her, publishes the text of the Emperor's letters to Natalie. On June 29 he wrote: "I am listening to have the necessary inquiries made in order to be able to give satisfaction regarding the measures of protection which Your Majesty believes due herself. Meanwhile remain assured that within my territory you shall enjoy every protection compatible with international obligations to your husband and the German government."

On July 5 the Emperor wrote to Natalie as follows: "As a result of my inquiries I can't support the opposition which your Majesty considers yourself bound to display to the demands of King Milan for the return of the Crown Prince. The King purely avails himself of his rights as a sovereign and father which the international law does not permit me to oppose. I therefore recommend you to place the Crown Prince at the King's disposal."

READY TO MEET THE CHARGES.

HAMBURG, Sept. 30.—Professor Geffken returned here from Helsingland last evening and was immediately arrested. He will be examined before a magistrate to-morrow. He is charged with furnishing the extracts from the Emperor Frederick's diary which were recently published by the Deutsche Rundschau. He has returned expressly to meet the charges.

ELECTIONEERING FOR THE GOVERNMENT.

PARIS, Sept. 30.—M. Gublet, Minister of Foreign Affairs, speaking at Abbeville to-day, expressed the anxiety he felt over the election of General Boulanger to the Chamber of Deputies, and drew a picture of the trouble that would befall France if many Boulangerists were elected. He hoped the country would rally to the support of the government.

Zanzibar.

GERMANS DIE DEFENDING THEMSELVES.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—Advices from Zanzibar say the Germans murdered at Kilwa died while nobly defending themselves. A German gunboat was present, but was unable to give assistance in the face of thousands of armed natives lining the beach. The corpses of the murdered Germans were terribly mutilated. An English gunboat saved the lives of the Germans at Kilwa. The Germans escaped from Kilwa half an hour before the arrival of the insurgents, who fired volleys at their show laden with thousands of pounds of gunpowder. The entire wealthy community of British Indian subjects at Hagomeyo left that place to-day terror stricken, owing to a rumor that a descent upon the town by the natives is imminent.

A Serious Runaway.

Special to the Gazette.

MUSQUITE, TEX., Sept. 30.—To-day about 9 a. m. while Mr. S. H. Camby, a prominent farmer of this section, was approaching town in his buggy, his horses became frightened at some scapers and plows which had been left by the road workers the day before, and ran away throwing Mr. Camby violently to the ground. He is thought to be badly injured. The horses ran to and almost through town, finally smashing the buggy and breaking the harness.

Cap'n A. S. Bailey the Democratic Nominee for the Twenty-first Legislature in Red River County.

Senator Coke Sends Greeting to the Convention at Waco to-day Warmly Endorsing Mills.

Republicans Afraid to Bet.

Special to the Gazette.

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 30.—The betting on the Presidential and state elections in this city this year is not so heavy as in former years, but is a great deal more exciting. All bets offered on Harrison are promptly taken by the Democrats, who consider themselves fortunate to secure an even bet. The majority made, however, are with odds in favor of Cleveland. A bet of $2000 was made in Clifton Bell's pool rooms last week with odds five to six in favor of Cleveland.

Several other wagers have been made on the same basis, the amounts ranging from $2000 to $3000. The other pool rooms schedule from ten to twenty bets for the week at the same figures and odds. Very rarely a bet is made even amounts.

The largest so far reported was made yesterday between A. Levy, a prominent merchant, and another citizen, whose name is not for publication, of $2400 each on the general result. The betting all over the state is about the same as in Denver. Senator John Pool is now offering from $2000 to $5000 on Cleveland with no takers. Jerry Jones, a prominent sporting man, recently bet $1000 to Jimmie Hart's $500 that New York would go Democratic, and at that time offered 10 to 7 on Cleveland, with no takers. He is now offering to take all bets even or, as he says, in an emergency he will give 7 to 5.

Red River County Politics.

Correspondence of the Gazette.

CLARKSVILLE, TEX., Sept. 29.—The primary election is daily settled and Cap'n A. S. Bailey is declared the nominee. Last Wednesday, the 25th, the committee met to count the vote. There were many rumors about what the committee would do. It was reported that there was considerable effort made by some to get the executive committee (all Clark met) to count Bailey out, but the integrity and honor of some members of the committee would not swear to bend to such dirt, though the various reports brought many strong Bailey men to town on last Wednesday to see what might be proposed. The count would have been done on Wednesday night, but one small box had not come in. The committee adjourned till Friday, and then debated a whole matter. Bailey's majority over Clark for Representative was 77.

Cap'n A. P. Cadey was elected County Judge; E. M. Bowers, District Clerk; W. H. Baggby, County Clerk; R. C. Gray, Collector; Will Taylor, Assessor; Captain G. L. Moorman, Treasurer; J. F. Cate, County Attorney; H. C. F. Dodd, Sheriff; J. M. Hubbard, Cotton Weigher.

The Republicans met here to-day to take under consideration the advisability of placing a county ticket in the field. Lewis McDonald (colored) presided over the meeting. After some wrangling over the matter, they decided to wait till further developments and adjourned till next Saturday, October 6.

It is reported that many men who claimed to be Democrats and voted in the late primary seemed to be very much dissatisfied at the nomination of Mr. Bailey, and are now howling for an independent candidate. These fellows are properly Non-Partisan-Union-Labor-Prohibition-Republicans.

Judge Douglas Reeves, one of the most prominent Republicans here, after the adjournment of the Republican convention to-day, was showing a resolution that he had prepared indorsing and nominating Mr. T. J. Covington of this county against Mr. Bailey for the Twenty-first Legislature, but he said he thought they would indorse him next Saturday. It is believed that Mr. Covington will announce himself this week as an independent candidate, hoping, as an alliance man, to be able to carry the Non-Partisan, Union Labor, etc. vote, and then next Saturday go indorsed by the Republicans, and hope to win, but Mr. Bailey will bury him by about 1500 votes.

Some of our people have been commenting on some editorial in the last three or four issues of the Alliance Journal, published here. It has been diving into President Cleveland and severely criticizing the Mills bill, and has been selling into the state Democratic convention for nominating Judge Henry and other things generally. It talks much about the inadequacy of either of the old parties to give relief

SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR.

BEST FAMILY MEDICINE.

No Household Should Be Without It, and, by being kept ready for immediate use, will save many an hour of suffering and many a dollar in time and doctors' bills.

"My Only Family Medicine."

"I have been a user of Simmons' Liver Regulator for many years. It has made it my own Family Medicine. I am a good and reliable medicine. My mother, who was very partial to it, and the doctor very safe, harmless and reliable as a Family Medicine, and have used it for many disorders of the system and found it to act like a charm. I believe it was used in time and would prove a great preventive of sickness. I have often recommended it to my friends and am constantly doing so."
